

Obituary

Died: Sunday, October 11, 2020

Rosie Kathleen Webster Bowes, age 95, passed away peacefully at her home, after several years of declining health. Rosie was born on January 9, 1925 in Leasburg, NC, to Flem Webster and Betty Hamlett Webster. She loved to laugh and was an avid gardener having grown many beautiful flowers. She loved working in the yard. In her younger years she enjoyed going to the beach and mountains. In her later years she was owner and operator of Penny's Trading Post. Her most precious and rewarding calling was being a helpful, loving and devoted wife, mother & grandmother. Along with her husband she was a lifetime member of Beulah Baptist Church that was one of her most joyous places to spend time.
